Contributing Institution: Special Collections and Archives, University of California, Irvine Libraries
Title: University of California, Irvine, Tomo No Kai records
Creator: University of California, Irvine. Tomo No Kai
Identifier/Call Number: AS.210
Physical Description: 0.5 Linear Feet(1 document box)
Date (inclusive): 1978-2013
Abstract: Tomo No Kai, roughly translating into 'circle of friends', is a student organization that was established at the University of California, Irvine in 1977. They are a cultural and social club that explore the Japanese and Japanese-American cultures through weekly events, programs, and meetings on campus as well as their involvement with the wider Japanese community through volunteer work and events with the Southern California Nikkei community. The collection comprises event leaflets and programs including for Japanese Cultural Night and Ballin' at the Bren, newsletters, funding requests and budgets, correspondence, articles, directory and cabinet information, organization registration materials, and the constitution.
Language of Material: English.
Access
The collection is only minimally processed, but is open for research. Please contact the Department of Special Collections and Archives in advance to request access.
Publication Rights
Property rights reside with the University of California. For permission to reproduce or to publish, please contact the University Archivist.
Preferred Citation
For the benefit of current and future researchers, please cite any additional information about sources consulted in this collection, including permanent URLs, item or folder descriptions, and box/folder locations.
Acquisition Information
Transferred from the Cross Cultural Center, 2016-2017. Materials separated from UCI Cross Cultural Center records (AS-052) and UCI Clubs and Organizations publications (PS-033) were added to the collection in 2020.
Collection Scope and Content Summary
Tomo No Kai, roughly translating into 'circle of friends', is a student organization that was established at the University of California, Irvine in 1977. They are a cultural and social club that explore the Japanese and Japanese-American cultures through weekly events, programs, and meetings on campus as well as their involvement with the wider Japanese community through volunteer work and events with the Southern California Nikkei community. The collection comprises event leaflets and programs including for Japanese Cultural Night and Ballin' at the Bren, newsletters, funding requests and budgets, correspondence, articles, directory and cabinet information, organization registration materials, and the constitution.
Subjects and Indexing Terms
University of California, Irvine. Tomo No Kai