Historical Note

The Cornerstone Theater Company was founded by director Bill Rauch and playwright Alison Carey in 1986. In 1992 the company settled in Los Angeles, CA. Cornerstone is a multi-ethnic, ensemble-based theater company. They commission and produce new plays, both original works and contemporary adaptations of classics, which combine the talents of professional and community collaborators. The company's mission is to make theater with and for people of many ages, cultures and levels of theatrical experience, in order to build bridges between and within diverse communities in their home city of Los Angeles and nationwide. Cornerstone Theater Company also operates the educational Cornerstone Institute, which offers theater artists hands-on training in community-based theater.
