Historical note
UCLA's International Studies and Overseas Program (ISOP) began in 1958. Formerly known as the Institute of International and Foreign Studies (IIFP), ISOP's founding functions were to promote international interdisciplinary studies and to serve as a liaison for government, international agencies, and international dignitaries and visitors to the university.
At its founding, ISOP was composed of five study centers: African Studies, Latin American Studies, Near Eastern Studies, and Russian and East European Studies, and Studies in Comparative Folklore and Mythology.
Scope and Content
Record Series 49 contains the administrative files of the 1962-1981 Japan Program, overseen by the International Studies and Overseas Programs at the University of California, Los Angeles. Materials include correspondence, conference records, and other documents about the activities of the Japan Program.
This is an inactive record series; no additional University records are expected to be added.
