Historical note

UCLA's International Studies and Overseas Program (ISOP) began in 1958. Formerly known as the Institute of International and Foreign Studies (IIFP), ISOP's founding functions were to promote international interdisciplinary studies and to serve as a liaison for government, international agencies, and international dignitaries and visitors to the university.

At its founding, ISOP was composed of five study centers: African Studies, Latin American Studies, Near Eastern Studies, Russian and East European Studies, and Studies in Comparative Folklore and Mythology.

Scope and Content

Record Series 51 contains correspondence generated by the Director of the Brazil Program, overseen by the International Studies and Overseas Programs at the University of California, Los Angeles. Files include correspondence of Anne Bodenheimer, Henry Bruman, David Fogelquist, and Claude Hulet.

This is an inactive record series; no additional University records are expected to be added.
