Historical note
UCLA's International Studies and Overseas Program (ISOP) began in 1958. Formerly known as the Institute of International and Foreign Studies (IIFP), ISOP's founding functions were to promote international interdisciplinary studies and to serve as a liaison for government, international agencies, and international dignitaries and visitors to the university.
At its founding, ISOP was composed of five study centers: African Studies, Latin American Studies, Near Eastern Studies, Russian and East European Studies, and Studies in Comparative Folklore and Mythology.

Scope and Content
Record Series 73 contains the administrative files of the 1964-1985 Chile Program, overseen by International Studies and Overseas Programs at the University of California, Los Angeles. Files include correspondence, accounting records, funding information, reports, and other documents about the activities of the Chile Program.
This is an inactive record series; no additional University records are expected to be added.
