Historical Note

The University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) Center for Language Education and Research (CLEAR) was a federally-funded five-year project lasting from 1985-1989. The Center was part of the UCLA Center for World Languages. The purpose of CLEAR was to improve the quality of language education in the United States. Its chief focus was on English proficiency with a simultaneous commitment to the maintenance and development of heritage language proficiency.

Scope and Content

Record Series 419 contains tapes and transcriptions of the "Seminar on Two Way Bilingual Immersion Programs" held by the Center for Language Education and Research in 1986. Tapes and transcripts relate elementary school class sessions and include audio, text, transcription information, subjects, context information, and tape quality evaluations. Appendices include transcriptions of work by students in recorded class sessions.

This is an inactive record series; no additional University records are expected to be added.
