Historical note
Since 1922, the Rally Committee of the ASUCLA has contributed to the UCLA community through such responsibilities as directing card shows at halftime of home football games, building the bonfire structure for the annual Bonfire & Rally, and protecting the Bruin bear during the week of the rivalry game.
Directing of card stunts involves planning stunts, writing instruction sheets, distributing card packs, and instructing the participants in the student section.
Scope and Content
Record Series 506 contains the card stunt files of the Associated Students of UCLA (ASUCLA) Rally Committee. Files include the administrative files of the Rally Committee regarding the organization of the committee, group trips, and card stunts; card stunt diagrams; and film and audio of card stunts.
This is an active record series; additional University records are expected to be added.
