Historical note
UCLA's Medical and Dental Student Store opened in 1966 to better fulfill the needs of students at the Schools of Medicine and Dentistry, replacing the smaller Medical Students' Store. Books, supplies, dental kits, and sundries were for sale. The store was planned and operated by Robert D. Maxwell and Ray Senecal.
Scope and Content
Record Series 535 contains a scrapbook assembled by Robert D. Maxwell. The scrapbook contains black and white and color photographs, notes, a report on the history of the Medical and Dental Student Store, clippings, and ephemera. It documents the origins, early years of development, and later history of the Medical and Dental Student Store at the UCLA Center of Health Sciences.
This is an inactive record series; no additional University records are expected to be added.
