Historical Note
Since its inception in 1959 the Center for Oral History Research - formerly known as the Oral History Program - has received a number of donated interviews. In some instances these interviews have been transcribed but not edited; in other cases they remain as audiotape recordings. All materials are available to researchers. However, donor agreements (or lack thereof) for some interviews may preclude copying or quotation.

Further information about the donated oral history interviews can be obtained through the Center for Oral History Research offices.

Scope and Content
Record Series 779 contains oral history transcripts and audio recordings donated to UCLA's Center for Oral History Research, and interviews from the Center for Iranian Jewish Oral History (CIJOH), many of which are in Persian.

NOTE: English language keyword content descriptions are available for the Center for Iranian Jewish Oral History transcripts located in boxes 10-12. However, the English language descriptions not included in the online finding aid.

This is an inactive record series; no additional University records are expected to be added.
