Processing History

Processed by Carlota Ramirez, 2017.

Processing of the José Antonio Ulloa collection of cartes de visite was completed by undergraduate students from the University of California, Riverside as part of the Special Collections & University Archives Backlog Processing Project started in 2015. This project was funded by the UCR Library and administered by Jessica Geiser, Collections Management Librarian.

Collection Scope and Contents

This collection consists of 60 cartes de visite, owned by José Antonio Ulloa of Zacatecas, Mexico. Items in the collection include photographs and portraits of European, South American, and Central American royalty and military members from the 19th century. Many of the cartes de visite depict members of European royalty related to Napoleon I, as well as cartes de visite of figures surrounding the trial and execution of Mexican Emperor Maximilian I in 1867. The cards also contain decorative monograms and illustrations located on the back representing different photographing studios that created the cards.

The collection also includes the original album which housed the photographs, along with an index written by Ulloa describing each of the photographs. Items have been described using Ulloa's original captions in Spanish, with some clarifying identifications and translations provided by the processor in brackets.

Arrangement Note

The collection is arranged according to the original album order established by Ulloa.
