Preferred Citation
[identification of item], [date if possible]. Shore Erosion Control in the United States collection (WRCA 135). Water Resources Collections and Archives. Special Collections & University Archives, University of California, Riverside.
Collection Scope and Contents
Materials authored mainly by the various District Engineers of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and by U.S. Beach Erosion Board. Reports by the District Offices are generally accompanied by reports, correspondence and revisions made by the reviewers of the Beach Erosion Board. Materials were collected by Morrough P. O'Brien who served as member of the U.S. Beach Erosion Board and the U.S. Coastal Engineering Research Center Board, 1938-1978.
Collection Number
Collection number updated February 2019. Legacy collection number was MS 89/3. This change was part of a project in 2018/2019 to update the collection numbers for collections in the Water Resources Collections and Archives.
