Title: Reed and Ketcheson Family photographs

Identifier/Call Number: 1992.0005

Physical Description: 14 items

Date: ca. 1860-1890

Abstract: The collection contains photographs of a Canadian family spanning multiple generations.

Language of Material: English .

Scope and Contents

The collection contains sixteen images in various sizes, including cartes-de-visite, cabinet cards, tintypes, and a large albumen print. It exemplifies the extent to which early photography was used for family portraiture.

Biography

The photographs document the extended family of Annis Ketcheson (1811-1901) and her husband David T. Reed (1807-1902).

Arrangement

Photographs are grouped according to family branch affiliation. The Reed, Reed-Fairman, and Reed-Ketcheson family photographs are in the first folder, Reed-Barnum and Reed-Brenton in the second, and the large group portrait is in the third.

Acquisition Information

The photographs were donated by Helen Freeland and accessioned into the permanent collection in 1992.

Publication Rights

These photographs are believed to be in the public domain. All requests for permission to publish be submitted in writing to the Curator of Collections.
