Descriptive Summary
Title: Will Connell Negatives
Collection Number: 1990.0024
Dates: 1926-1961
Creator/Collector: Connell, Will, 1898-1961
Extent: 36 linear feet
Repository: UC Riverside. California Museum of Photography
Riverside, California 92521
Abstract: The collection contains approximately 15,000 negatives and prints along with individual periodicals, personal notes, technical photographic books, manuscripts, and photographic equipment, made or used by Will Connell. Connell photographed virtually every industry in California at the time. He also completed a number of literary projects and artistic endeavors.
Language of Material: English
Scope and Content
The collection is organized within box lot numbers which in turn are organized by job name. Will Connell, as a commercial photographer, arranged his negatives according to the name of the commissioner of the work; the museum has maintained the original order. The dates of the images range from 1926 through 1952, although the majority of the negatives originated during the 1930's and 1940's.
Biography/Administrative History
Acquisition Information
Will Connell, son of the photographer, donated the body of work to the UCR/California Museum of Photography, University of California, Riverside in 1990.
Access
Original negatives are available by appointment, but must be handled by the Curator of Collections. Images should be requested by their print identification numbers.
Publication Rights
Images may be considered for publication with advanced, written permission. UCR/California Museum of Photography assists the Connell family in the administration of Will Connell's copyright.
