Scope and Content
The collection consists of over 100 periodicals, pamphlets, weekly newspapers, booklets, and books as well as a few audio visual works concerning Conservative Christian ideologies and political philosophies, mainly that of the Christian Identity movement. The collection spans from the early 1900s to 2015 and arranged by subject. The first series-- Series I. Christian Identity and other Christian Conservative Tenets-- consists of works describing Christian Identity origin beliefs and major tenets. Christian Identity is an ideology rooted in the belief those of European descent, Anglo-saxon, Germanic, and Nordic people, can be traced back to the "Lost Tribes of Israel" or the real "Israelites" descened of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; as opposed to those of the Jewish descent, who are believed to be impostors. Accompanying those works are a few works relating to British Israelism, a precursor to Christian Identity ideology but with a foundation in philosemitism. Of particular note, included in the series is works from the Silver Legion and Christian Separatist Church, who hold more extremist view of the relationship/correlation between the Bible and fascism. There are works by Christian conservative religions, such as Baptist and Evangelical, which heavily describe their interpretations of biblical prophecies. Beyond origin beliefs, Christian Identity beliefs are highly political and are linked to White nationalism while also paradoxically believing anti-government, thus Series II. Right-Wing and Christian Identity Political Theory consists of material relating to Christian Identity and Far Right Wing political beliefs in anti-socialism and communism, anti-abortion, anti-homosexuality, antisemitism and, most notably from Christian Identity, anti-government rhetoric. Series III. Periodicals encompass a new addition (acquired in 2017) of newspapers, newsletters, and bulletins from various Right wing organizations.
