Identifier/Call Number: CEMA 104
Contributing Institution: UC Santa Barbara Library, Department of Special Collections
Language of Material: English
Physical Description: 2.08 linear feet(2 document boxes, 1 oversize box)
Date (inclusive): 1970-2009
Abstract: This is a small but significant Chicano literary collection that highlights María Iris Duke dos Santos’ relationship to various Chicano writers over four decades. The collection adds understanding to the development of Chicano letters and writing and its international growth. The focus of this collection is María Iris Duke dos Santos' relationship with Rolando Hinojosa, Tomás Rivera (former Chancellor of UC Riverside) and Sabine R. Ulibarrí. Within the section titled "Other Authors and Events," author Rudolfo Anaya is also featured. The collection includes correspondence, photographs, ephemera, historical documents, memorabilia, audio tapes and books. It is housed in three document boxes. The material is organized according to María Iris Duke dos Santos' provenance, by author, activities, and dates, beginning in the 1970s. All the photographs have been labeled with names and dates.
Physical Location: Del Norte
Language of Materials: The collection is predominantly in Spanish, with some English materials.
