Acquisition Information

Scope and Content of Collection

The Public Historical Studies Program is a graduate program of the Department of History. For more information, see their website: http://www.history.ucsb.edu/fields/field.php?field_id=1

Arrangement

The collection is arranged in the following series:

Series I: Fire Study, contains drafts of the PHS publication on the Painted Cave fire, newspaper clippings, government documents, and other related materials. While the publication was focused on the Painted Cave fire, the series also contains materials on previous Santa Barbara County fires, as well as the Oakland / East Bay Hills fire and the Southland fires. Also contains audio tapes of interviews with various officials and private citizens on the Painted Cave fire.

Series II: Vintners Project, contains interview transcripts, history files, and drafts of the PHS publication on Santa Barbara County winemakers and wineries. Also contains audio tapes of the interviews.

Series IV: Correspondence, contains incoming and outgoing correspondence by faculty of the Public History Program, mainly Robert Kelley.

Series V: Subject files, contains general files on conferences, curriculum, smaller PHS projects, internships, visiting speakers, and other subjects.

Series VI: Administrative files, contains files on the NEH grant that funds the program, budget files, program descriptions and brochures, and related materials.
