Scope and Content of Collection
From Housing and Residential Services “About Us” page, http://www.housing.ucsb.edu/home/about-us.htm:
Housing & Residential Services (H&RS) provides housing and residential life services for 7320 students in 8 residence halls and 6 apartment complexes, 65 for-sale homes and 70 rental apartments for faculty, 10,000 students adjacent to the campus, 23,000 conferees during the summer, 449 full-time career employees, and 800+ part-time student and casual employees.
UCSB is a distinguished university recognized for its leadership by state, national, and world academic communities. Housing & Residential Services exists as an integral part of the educational program and academic services of UCSB. Inherent in the operation is the formation and support of an atmosphere conducive to living and learning. H&RS promotes the academic mission of UCSB and creates through support services and developmental programs a sense of community among students, faculty and staff. For more information see their website, http://www.housing.ucsb.edu/

The collection contains housing brochures, guides, student surveys and statistical reports, a history of Housing and Residential Services, and materials on other services and programs offered. The collection is arranged alphabetically.
