Scope and Content of Collection
The bulk of the collection contains research notes relating to M. K. Gandhi, which Professor Stephen N. Hay used in his teaching at the University of California, Santa Barbara, and his writings on Gandhi. Included are materials relating to several trips to India, beginning in the latter 1940s.

There also is a small amount of personal/biographical material, mainly curriculum vitae, files for history courses that Hay taught at UCSB, as well as drafts and other material relating to his writings, including some unpublished work.

The collection thus far has been sorted and arranged to the box level.

Related Material

This collection also contains published works from Professor Hay's library, primarily relating to M. K. Gandhi, which have been cataloged separately and which can be searched on Pegasus, the UCSB Libraries online catalog.
