Biographical/Historical note
Collection was formed by the repository from small separate acquisitions, and is added to periodically.
Scope and Contents note
The ADC Study collection spans 4.5 linear feet and dates from circa 1855 to the present. The collection, compiled by the repository from assorted acquisitions, contains photographs, negatives, ephemera including posters, articles and clippings and a few documents, all organized alphabetically by architect or topic and arranged in three series: Articles and Clippings, Photographic Materials, and Printed Ephemera. Note that the repository has additional material in other collections about architects and topics in this collection. This is an open, growing collection.
