Finding Aid for the Door frame from the Edward Heller house (Atherton, Calif.) designed by George Washington Smith, circa 1926 0000313

Finding aid prepared by Chris Marino
Architecture and Design Collection, Art, Design & Architecture Museum
Arts Building Room 1434
University of California
Santa Barbara, California, 93106-7130
805-893-2724
adc@museum.ucsb.edu
Title: Door frame from the Edward Heller house (Atherton, Calif.) designed by George Washington Smith
Identifier/Call Number: 0000313
Contributing Institution: Architecture and Design Collection, Art, Design & Architecture Museum
Language of Material: English
Physical Description: 1.0 Items
Date (inclusive): circa 1926
creator: Smith, George Washington, 1876-1930, American Architect Access
Open to view by qualified researchers.

Custodial History note
Door frame was saved by students of Professor Paul Turner in the late 1980s and installed in his office at Stanford University. Donated to the ADC by Professor Turner and his students, Richard Joncas and Alan R. Michelson.

Preferred Citation note

Biographical/Historical note
The Edward Heller house was designed by George Washington Smith and built circa 1926 in Atherton, California. Edward Heller was a wealthy investment banker in the San Francisco bay area. The Heller house was demolished in 1991, and the door frame became the property of Professor Paul Turner, Stanford University.

Scope and Content note
The door frame from the Heller house is of Spanish-colonial revival style and stood in the house between the library and the dining room.

Related Archival Materials note

Subjects and Indexing Terms
Smith, George Washington, 1876-1930, American Architect
Doorframes