Scope and Content of Collection

This collection contains biographical material, correspondence, instructional materials from her years as one of the most popular instructors at the University of California at Santa Cruz, writings, speeches, and lectures, and material concerning her political activism. There is also significant material on the trial of Angela Davis, in whose defense Ms. Aptheker was a key activist.

Series 1: Biographical Material - contains personal documents, date books and diaries, awards and diplomas, and other personal items. More information can be obtained from reading the family correspondence in Boxes 23-24.

Series 2: Correspondence - contains correspondence related to the Free Speech Movement, letters from strangers regarding Aptheker's public affirmation of Communist Party membership, hate mail regarding FSM and CP activities, letters to Aptheker while she was in the Santa Rita jail, letters concerning the Angela Davis case, letters to and from prisoners, letters regarding the controversy over publication of Women's Legacy, and letters of appreciation from students. Family correspondence has been separated and is in Boxes 23 and 24. Correspondence with Angela Davis has been separated and is in Box 24, while correspondence concerning her trial is in Box 50.

Series 3: Writings - contains course outlines, bibliographies, handouts, assignments, syllabi, lecture notes, course proposals and other material related to Aptheker's teaching career, mostly at San Jose State University and the University of California at Santa Cruz, as well as requests for funding to support research and writing. Also included are many articles, essays, short papers and reviews, from early compositions through student papers to excerpts of manuscripts of published works as well as reviews of Aptheker's published works and her Master's Thesis notes, material for some of her writings, bibliographic notes and miscellany. This series also includes notes, texts or transcripts of speeches given beginning with Aptheker's student activism days at UC Berkeley through the Angela Davis trial to later lesbian and feminist conferences, among many other occasions and memorials.

Series 4: Activities - contains pamphlets, press releases, flyers, song lyrics and songbooks (including two 45 rpm Free Speech Carols records), notes, memos and statements as well as material related to various professional conferences. This series also contains material related to the evolution of Women's Studies into a Department at UCSC and other agenda, memos, and notes.

Series 5: Clippings & Newspapers - contains newspaper and magazine articles related to Aptheker's areas of interest and teaching. Most of the newspapers are from the San Francisco and Monterey Bay Areas. There is one folder of articles on Aptheker herself. There are photocopied clippings in Box 51 concerning Angela Davis's trial.

Series 6: Angela Y. Davis Trial - contains correspondence concerning Angela Davis' murder and conspiracy trial in the early 1970's, photocopies of court documents, manuscripts by Angela Davis, newspapers and articles concerning the trial and the movement to free Angela Davis, and writings by others. There is also material on George Jackson, Ruchell Magee, and the San Quentin Six.

Series 7: Photographs & Slides - contains photographs covering Aptheker's life and slides of her wedding to Jack Kurzweil in 1965.

Series 8: Non-Print Materials - contains CDs, microfilm, VHS videotapes, audio reels, audio tapes and vinyl LPs
