Abstract: The archive of the Clarion Science Fiction and Fantasy Writers' Workshop documents the science fiction and memorabilia, and class rosters.
Administrative History
The Clarion Workshop is an intensive six-week summer program focused on fundamentals particular to the writing of science fiction and fantasy. It is considered a premier proving and training ground for aspiring writers of science fiction, fantasy, and horror. Clarion was founded by Robin Scott Wilson in 1968 at Clarion State College (now Clarion University) in Pennsylvania. Wilson built his system partly on the tradition of mutual criticism in use at the Milford Science Fiction Writers' Conference, a workshop for professional SF writers established by Damon Knight and Kate Wilhelm (who helped Wilson with Clarion as well). From 1972 through 2006, Clarion Workshop was hosted by Michigan State University in East Lansing, Michigan. In 2007, the workshop moved to University of California, San Diego.
Scope and Content of Collection
The archive of the Clarion Science Fiction and Fantasy Writers' Workshop documents the science fiction and fantasy writing class rosters. The folders are arranged chronologically, and then alphabetically by author within each year.
