Brief History
The Dental Oral History Project, which focussed on the development of the dental profession in the San Francisco Bay Area, was carried out by UCSF School of Dentistry faculty member Robert Brigante, DDS, with the help of the Regional Oral History Office in the Bancroft Library, UC Berkeley. The interviewees were chosen as being representative of the profession, and interviewed by a UCSF dental student Warren Q. Longhurst, during the summers of 1967-68, funded through the office of the Chancellor, Willard Fleming, DDS.

Scope and Content
Includes tapes, transcripts, biographical materials, photographs, of oral history interviews with sixteen dentists from the San Francisco Bay Area, and correspondence and records associated with the project.

Related Collections
Additional interviews, of UCSF School of Dentistry Faculty, were carried on later, see:
