Abstract: This collection contains the research and writing files Nancy Stoller (who also worked under the name Nancy Shaw), as well as posters, a large pamphlet file, and other ephemera. The bulk of the collection focuses on Stoller's AIDS research for the book, Lessons from the Damned: Queers, Whores and Junkies Respond to AIDS. There is also material connected to, Women Resisting AIDS: Feminist Strategies of Empowerment, the book she co-edited with Beth E. Schneider. There are also some examples of her work on healthcare for prisoners and Latinas and breast cancer.

System of Arrangement

Arranged to the folder level. Carton 9 and the oversize box were received as an addition in 2013 and are unprocessed and not included in the finding aid.

Processing Information

Processed by Julia Bazar in January 2005

Biographical Information

Nancy Elaine Stoller was born in 1942 in Newport News, Virginia. In 1960 she left Virginia to attend Wellesley College in Wellesley, Massachusetts, where she earned an A.B. in Philosophy in 1963. She went on to earn her M.A. (1965) and Ph.D. (1972) in Sociology from Brandeis University in Waltham, Massachusetts. From 1978-1980 she was a Post-doctoral fellow at Yale University. Stoller started her job at University of California (UC) Santa Cruz in 1973 and received tenure in 1987 after having filed a gender discrimination suit against the University. Stoller worked and published under her married name, Nancy Shaw, for many years before reclaiming Stoller in the 1990s. Along with her work on AIDS, Stoller's research has focused on women, prisoners, and health care.

Stoller became involved with the civil rights movement during her first year of college. She was involved in local actions in Wellesley and Boston during the school year and worked with the Washington D.CIRCA area Non-violent Action Group (DC-NAG) during the summer. Later she became involved with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and did organizing work in Maryland and Arkansas. Her activism continued throughout her life. In a recent, short, online biography she states:

I have been involved in various social change movements: anti-racism, feminism, anti-apartheid work, queer organizing, women's health activism, working on changing prison conditions, prison abolition, and so on.

After a brief marriage to Kevin (Kwame) Shaw (1966-1972) and the birth of her daughter, Gwendolyn, in 1968, Stoller came out as a lesbian. She was one of the first openly lesbian professors at UC Santa Cruz (UCSC) and was outed internationally during her tenure fight.

Between her dismissal from UC Santa Cruz in 1984 and her reinstatement in 1987, Stoller worked as the Women's Program Development Director within the Education Department of the San Francisco AIDS Foundation (SFAF) from 1984 to 1987. While there she was involved with a number of projects including heterosexual focus groups, the drafting of a number of pamphlets, and the organization of women's support groups. This work led to further interactions with a variety of community based AIDS organizations. She did a formal participant/observer study of the New York City ACT-UP chapter in the fall/winter of 1989. She went to meetings and demonstrations, including the St. Patrick's Cathedral demonstration held in the December of that year.

Stoller also spent significant time working with Cal-PEP, the California Prostitutes Education Project, an AIDS prevention and education organization founded and run by prostitutes and former prostitutes to prevent the spread of AIDS within that community. Stoller served as an advisor to the Executive Director of the organization, as well as doing a stint on the Board of Directors. Other groups that she had contact with during this period include: Prevention Point, a Needle Exchange program working with Intravenous (IV) Drug Users; the Women's AIDS Network (WAN), and Women's AIDS Risk Network (WARN).

Stoller translated her experience working for SFAF and her interest in other AIDS related community organizations into two books on AIDS - Lessons from the Damned: Queers, Whores and Junkies Respond to AIDS published in 1998 and *Women
Resisting AIDS: Feminist Strategies of Empowerment (1995) co-edited by Stoller with Beth E. Schneider of UC Santa Barbara. Stoller wrote the chapter on “Lesbian Involvement in the AIDS Epidemic: Changing Roles and Generational Differences” in Women Resisting AIDS After returning to the UCSC campus she has taught classes in Transgressive Sexualities and Gender, Health and Human Rights in Prison, and Theory and Practice of Sexual Politics. The majority of Stoller's ongoing research has been into the treatment of women prisoners, especially in relation to medical care. She was also involved in an outreach study on breast cancer in the Latina community. As of 2005 Stoller is still teaching at UCSC and living in San Francisco.

Scope and Content of Collection

This collection consists predominantly of the research files used by Nancy Stoller in the writing of two books and a number of academic papers, and in teaching at the University of California Santa Cruz (UCSC). A high percentage of the collection is secondary source material including: newspaper and magazine articles, scholarly papers, documents (primarily minutes, publications, and other administrative or publicity materials) from a variety of community based, AIDS related organizations; a few posters; and a very extensive pamphlet collection. Primary documents include: drafts and published versions of papers written or co-written by Stoller, drafts of chapters and correspondence from Lessons from the Damned: Queers, Whores and Junkies Respond to AIDS, correspondence connected to Women Resisting AIDS: Feminist Strategies of Empowerment (1995), various handwritten notes, and two participant-observer notebooks from her time with ACT-UP New York. The collection also includes a small sampling of condoms and stickers, including some from Amsterdam, as well as dental dams and a leather harness for the dams. A small amount of material documenting some of her other research topics, as well as her later career at UCSC, can be found near the end of the collection. For material relating to Nancy Elaine Stoller (Nancy Stoller Shaw’s) tenure battle with UCSC see the Nancy Shaw collection at the Gay Lesbian Bisexual Transgender Historical Society.

Stoller’s interest in AIDS, as shown by her subject files, ranged widely beyond the gay white male model of the early epidemic. Stoller collected popular and academic articles, pamphlets, clippings, organizational files, and other materials on Asian Americans, Latinos, Native Americans, African Americans, multicultural, and international issues. South Africa is represented by a series of posters and some other ephemera. Australia is represented by a number of research articles from Macquarie University, and the Netherlands (Holland) is represented by stickers and condoms as well as conference materials. A significant portion of the subject files concern women's issues including children and AIDS, education, heterosexual transmission, lesbians, perinatal transmission and pregnancy, prostitution, and women and AIDS. Ethics, demographics and the religious response are also covered.

The collection contains significant amounts of material on a number of agencies and organizations. The big three are the San Francisco AIDS Foundation (SFAF); the California Prostitute Education Project (Cal-PEP); and ACT-UP New York. Other organizations represented by multiple folders-worth of materials include: ACHA (American College Health Association - Task Force on the Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS)); APHA (American Public Health Association); City of New York and City of San Francisco Commissions on Human Rights; NSBC (National Skills Building Conference); WARN (Women and AIDS Risk Network); and University AIDS Events (and papers) from UCSF, UCB, UCSC, SFSU, and Macquarie University in Australia.

Other agencies and organizations documented to a greater or lesser extent include: AAPCHO (Association of Asian/Pacific Community Health Organization); AIDS Action Pledge, San Francisco; AIDS Health Project, San Francisco; California AIDS Project; SAMHA (Substance Abuse and Mental Health in AIDS); Santa Cruz AIDS Project; the Stop AIDS Project, San Francisco; WORLD (Women Organized to Respond to Life-threatening Diseases); AIDS Action Council; CARE AIDS (Prevention for Substance Abuse Treatment Programs, New York); Gay Men's Health Crisis [New York]; the National Gay Task Force (NGTF); and the New York City Task Force on Women & AIDS.

The collection is divided into 5 Series, based primarily on Stoller's own division of materials, and most of Stoller's folder headings and order have been retained, with occasional renaming of folders or subseries for clarity, and order imposed within or between topics/series/subseries when the original order was absent or unclear.

The series are: Series I: AIDS Subject Files; Series II: Organizations; Series III: Writings; Series IV: Administrative, Prison and Non-AIDS Files; Series V: Ephemera. Some of these series include subseries.
Scope and Content Note

This series consists of a variety of materials, from handwritten notes to newspaper clippings, arranged alphabetically by subject. Almost all of the material directly addresses AIDS or HIV infection; those that don't were clearly collected as background information on the subject. Other types of documents include photocopies of newspaper and magazine articles, whole magazines, scholarly papers, working documents or reports, statistical reports, some pamphlets or pamphlet drafts [see pamphlet subseries in the Ephemera Series for more pamphlets], etcetera. Some individual items appear in more than one folder, because Stoller classified them that way. Information on similar topics can be found under different subject headings (i.e. even though there is a separate subject heading on "Prostitutes," a folder on "Women in the Sex Industry" can be found under "Women & AIDS."). Besides the Media subject file, which consists primarily of newspaper Clippings, several of the other subject files also contain "Media" folders and/or clippings mixed in with other documents. There are some drafts of articles in this series; see also Series III: Writings, for more materials written by Stoller.

The subjects are arranged alphabetically and include: Asian-Americans and AIDS, Children and AIDS, Education, Epidemiology and Demographics, Ethics, Funding for AIDS Organizations, Heterosexuals and AIDS, International AIDS Conferences, International Concerns / AIDS and other Countries, Latino Issues, Lesbians, Media, Multicultural Concerns, Perinatal AIDS and Pregnancy, Prisoners and AIDS, Prostitution, PWA (People with AIDS), Religion, Research Articles, Resources, Risk, Safe(r) Sex, Treatment Issues, Women & AIDS, Workplace Issues, and AIDS Miscellaneous.

Of special note are: 2 interviews in "Asian-Americans & AIDS - General Articles" folder; A draft of The Mental Health Impact of AIDS on Campus: A Handbook for College and University Counselors submitted to NIH in October 1987 by Johnson, Bassin & Shaw, Inc; and a photocopy of a photograph in the "Multicultural Concerns - Photocopy of Group Photo" folder, that appears to be of the Outreach Committee, mentioned in the previous folder. Wherever possible, original folder titles have been preserved.

Physical Description: 263 Folders : Cartons 3-7 Folders 3/1-7/14

Scope and Content Note

This series contains materials similar to those found in the subject files, but Stoller classified them by organization rather than subject. There are fewer newspaper clippings and more minutes and other administrative documents in this Series. Quantity and quality of materials in this series range from a single fundraising letter from The Names Project to an extensive collection of San Francisco AIDS Foundation documents. This series is further subdivided into 6 subseries, The first two subseries consist of an aggregate of organizations on which Stoller has amassed a small or medium amount of material, the next 3 subseries each represent one of the organizations that Stoller actively worked with/observed during her hiatus from UCSCIRCA The final subseries contains materials from several Women's Organizations. The subseries are: A. Geographical (Small); B. Alphabetical (Medium); Subseries C: SFAF; Subseries D: CAL-PEP (California Prostitutes Education Project); Subseries E: ACT-UP New York City; Subseries F: Women's Organizations.

This is a modification of Stoller's order. She had the organizations with just one or two folders of information separated from the those with a large or middle-sized amount of folders. The large and mid-sized groupings were in no distinguishable order. The organizations with the largest number of folders (which correspond to the groups in which Stoller was most active) have been given individual sub-series for ease in description. Stoller appeared to have kept the various women's related organizations together, so this was retained as the final subseries.

Subseries 2.1 Geographical (Small) 1984-1993

Physical Description: 36 Folders : Carton 3 Folders 3/1-3/36

Scope and Content Note

This subseries contains from one to two folders on each of a number of AIDS organizations or AIDS related projects of non-AIDS specific organizations. There is also one folder of material from the American Family Association, a right wing propaganda organization denouncing gays and AIDS. The materials in this subseries vary greatly, The Gay Men's Health Crisis folder contains only a single letter from Stoller, while the National Gay Task Force, the California and Santa Cruz AIDS Projects, and a few other organizations take up two folders each. The subseries is arranged alphabetically by regional subdivisions: Northern California/Bay Area Organizations, Southern California, and New York and National Groups.

Of special note are the following: The AAPCHO (Association of Asian/Pacific Community Health Organization) folder includes information on the film "Behind the Masks: AIDS... It Affects All of Us." The AWARE Study folder contains information on a UCSF Study for which Stoller was a consultant and Constance Wofsy was principal investigator. SAMHA (Substance Abuse and Mental Health in AIDS) was another cooperative project between UCSF, UCB and Hunter's Point organizations. The Santa Cruz AIDS Project material includes AIDS Prevention in Public Sex Environments (1990). The CARE AIDS Prevention for Substance Abuse Treatment Programs folder contains AIDS Prevention for Substance Abuse Treatment Programs, published by the State of New York.

Subseries 2.3 San Francisco AIDS Foundation (SFAF) 1985-1994

Physical Description: 66 Folders : Carton 4 Folders 4/35-4/71 ; Carton 5 Folders 5/1-5/29

Scope and Content Note
This subseries contains materials documenting the work of the San Francisco AIDS Foundation (SFAF). The majority of the materials come from Stoller's time as Women's Program Development Coordinator. Most of the materials are related to her work within the Education Department including work with women, heterosexuals, children, etcetera. There is also a large subsection of material on SFAF's work with Intravenous Drug Users. Of special interest is a file concerning responses to Tom Waddell's Article "Don't Take the Test" in ComingUp. The Antibody Testing folder also contains a lot of information on the test/don't test controversy. "Nancy’s Timelines" includes her May 12, 1987 resignation letter (she was returning to UCSC) and also the posting for her job from October 1984. The Miscellaneous items folder includes list of current legislation and SFAF’s position on each bill. The Annual Report folder contains reports from 1985-1993 (there was no annual report published in 1991), it also includes a fundraising flyer/pamphlet from 1987.

Subseries 2.4 California Prostitutes Education Project (CAL-PEP) 1988-1996

Physical Description: 21 Folders : Carton 5 Folders 5/30-5/50

Scope and Content Note
This subseries contains materials documenting the work of the CAL-PEP, an AIDS prevention program organized and run by prostitutes and former prostitutes. It also includes some COYOTE (Call Off Your Old Tired Ethics) materials. Besides minutes and other program and grant related materials, there are some materials connected with a controversy that arose around Gloria Lockett, the organization's executive director, and her hiring and management policies. Of special interest are the interview with Lockett from 1993, clippings about the controversy, the "NIDA Grant" folder which discusses an earlier difference of opinion between CAL-PEP and two other organizations. Also included is draft of Stoller's 1993 paper, "Post-Modern Prostitutes: When Sex Workers Run AIDS Organizations," which she had presented at a conference and correspondence concerning the best way to inform Lockett about the paper. Also of interest is a draft of "Prostitutes Prevent AIDS: A Handbook for Health Educators" from 1988.

Subseries 2.6 Women’s Organizations 1985-1998

Scope and Content Note
This subseries contains materials on several organizations concerned with women and AIDS, most specifically the Women’s AIDS Network (WAN), which was affiliated to some extent with the San Francisco AIDS Foundation (SFAF); the Women & AIDS Risk Network (WARN), which was an outreach project of the California School of Professional Psychology (CSPP) funded by the National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) for three years [12/87-10/90]; and WORLD (Women Organized to Respond to Life-threatening Diseases), a newsletter full of personal stories of HIV+ Women. Also included is an undated statement on AIDS from the California branch of the National Organization For Women (NOW) and single folders of information from several regional groups including: Long Beach, California; Boulder, Colorado; Boston, Massachusetts; the Washington, D.C. and Maryland area; Portland, Oregon, and even England. The Portland, Oregon folder includes pamphlets and material on 1987 conference “Love Carefully ... Stop AIDS: A Free Conference for Women”. The condom and button from this folder have been moved to the Ephemera Series.

Series 3 Writings 1987-1996

Physical Description: 39 Folders: Carton 7 Folders 7/15-7/49; Carton 8 Folders 8/1-8/4

Scope and Content Note

This series consists primarily of drafts and background materials for Stoller's 1998 book Lessons From the Damned. These files are arranged by chapter and/or subject and were kept separately from the other subject files by Stoller. Also in this series are other writings by Stoller, and materials concerning Women Resisting AIDS: Feminist Strategies of Empowerment, eds. Schneider & Stoller, Temple University Press, 1995. The Lessons From the Damned material is arranged by chapter and/or topic and material on each chapter includes drafts of the chapter along with assorted articles, clippings, and other research materials that Stoller had pulled together as reference for that chapter. Some of these materials may also be found elsewhere in the collection, primarily in the subject or organizational files. The first folder contains correspondence concerning the book. The final few folders contain miscellaneous examples of Stoller's other written work and files concerning the reviewing of books and presentations by Stoller.

Of special interest are interviews with Vito Russo (the pages of this interview were not in order, apparently on purpose) and Larry Kramer. The "Syringe Exchange (1987-1995)" folder is also of note since it contains material of both national and international scope.

Series 4 Administrative, Prison, and Non-AIDS Files 1985-1995

Physical Description: 11 Folders : Carton 8 Folders 8/5-8/15

Scope and Content Note

This series contains materials that don't fit easily into the other categories; many of these files/items came in the second donation/acquisition of this collection. The "AIDS and Prisoners" file contains a cover letter addressed to Urvashi Vaid at the National Prison Project of the ACLU. There are also several files concerning legal actions on behalf of specific prisoners and correspondence to, from, and about prisoners, that are restricted. The material concerning the October 8, 1985, AIDS Update for Health Care Practitioners in the California Department of Corrections, conference, which was sponsored by SFAF, Sacramento AIDS Foundation, and the California Department of Corrections, should be of special interest. The primary non-AIDS files refer to a 1993 Grant Proposal for a Latina Peer Outreach (Breast Cancer) Project in which Stoller was involved. The other files of particular interest include a 1995 file concerning Stoller's promotion to full professor at UCSC, and the final folder in the series which contains a bilingual poem Ligartija/Lizard by Elba Rosario Sanchez, with an ink drawing by Robert Ciarito.

Series 5 Ephemera 1983-1995

Physical Description: 30 Folders : Carton 8 Folders 8/16-8/44 ; Container 9 Oversized Folder

Scope and Content Note
This series includes pamphlets, posters, condoms, buttons, stickers, and other three-dimensional and non-paper items. The pamphlet subseries is quite extensive and includes some pamphlets removed from other parts of the collection. The Ephemera subseries contains a wide variety of materials from the United States and abroad (particularly France and The Netherlands). The poster subseries is also quite broad and international, with older posters from New York City's ADAPT to more recent works, from local posters to South African examples. The poster subseries also contains materials such as oversized flyers, a folded out catalog, and brainstorming sheets from that SFAF "Education Department-Planning" folder. The Portland, Oregon folder in Series II: Organizations, Subseries F: Women's Organizations includes stickers and condoms.

Subseries 5.1 Pamphlets 1983-1994

Physical Description: 18 Folders : Carton Folders 8/16-8/33

Scope and Content Note
This subseries consists of pamphlets; most are in English but there is also a folder of Spanish language and bilingual pamphlets, as well as a few in French, Tagalog, Chinese, Thai, and Korean. The Bay Area folder includes copies of 2 "fotonovelas," one in English for teens and one in Spanish directed at adults; the Red Cross folder includes a bilingual fotonovela. The National Institutes of Health (NIH) folder contains pamphlets on breast cancer in both English and Spanish. The California folder contains pamphlets from statewide organizations and southern California groups. The majority of non-California material is from Miami, Florida, and the DC/Maryland area. The Federal government folder contains the 1986 Surgeon General's Report, a memo from Pat Christian, and a photocopy of a page from the MMWR.

Subseries 5.3 Posters and Oversized Materials 1984-1992, undated

Physical Description: Container 9 - 1 oversized folder

Scope and Content Note

This subseries consists of posters and oversized flyers. Most of the posters are not dated. The posters have been sorted into groups by size and the organization they were issued by. Of special interest are a set of 5 posters from the Township AIDS Project (Johannesburg, South Africa), and an oversized illustrated souvenir map of a Johannesburg shopping district can be found later in the collection. The earliest materials in the subseries appear to be 3 posters from ADAPT (Funded by New York City Dept. of Health" with the theme AIDS is a death sentence) that are probably from the 1984/1985 period. Oversized "Brainstorming" charts have been moved to this folder from the San Francisco AIDS Foundation's Education - Planning folder.
