Organizational History Americans for Nonsmokers' Rights (ANR) was established in 1976 as the Group Against Smoking Pollution (GASP) when several local GASP chapters across California merged and incorporated. In 1981 California GASP became Californians for Nonsmokers' Rights (CNR). CNR went national in 1986 and became ANR. ANR advocates the rights of nonsmokers. It has been involved in political campaigns in California for Propositions 5 (1977-1978), 10 (1979-1980), and 99 (1986), and against Proposition 188 (1994). ANR has put nonsmokers' rights on the national agenda, by working to ban smoking on airline flights, and upholding the Environmental Protection Agency's risk assessment of secondhand smoke as a carcinogen. ANR works with cities and counties to enact local ordinances to protect nonsmokers on the job, in restaurants and public places, and on public transportation. ANR has established a National Resource Center to provide information and technical assistance to government agencies, local advocates and the media. ANR's mission, history, and programs are described on their Web site at http://www.no-smoke.org/.
Scope and Contents This collection, which is a continuation of the Americans for Nonsmokers' Rights Records --MSS 94-29 (1974-1994, bulk dates 1978-86), covers the period of 1980-1998 with the bulk of the materials from 1989-96. The materials in the collection document anti-smoking activities on a national and international scale, focusing primarily on legislation and litigation, although it also includes some program materials relating to California Proposition 99-funded educational projects. The collection includes clippings, correspondence, educational and promotional materials, petitions, legal documents, and videotapes. The materials in this collection fall into three overlapping series. The first series, Administrative Files, includes a wide variety of materials including correspondence, newsletters, petitions, legal documents, and program materials. The second series, Subject Files, comprises material from ANR's "Master File" of reference materials and is primarily made up of clippings and other ephemera. The third series, Media, contains tobacco control magazines and newsletters ( Tobacco Control News, Tobacco Facts, and others). This collection includes materials documenting ANR's work with cities and counties on local ordinances to protect nonsmokers. It also includes clippings and correspondence relating to the various smoking bans in California Propositions 99 and 188, as well as materials relating to the Environmental Protection Agency's risk assessment of secondhand smoke as a carcinogen. The collection also includes materials from ANR's "Master File," which includes a wide variety of clippings, newsletters, and other ephemera. Administrative Files 1986-1996

Scope and Contents

This series consists of files arranged alphabetically by subject illustrating ANR's legislative and other interests. It also includes historical clippings about ANR and correspondence requesting information on projects or on ANR's two videos "Death in the West" and "Second Hand Smoke."

Arrangement

Major subdivisions include: 1. Legislation, which includes information on California smoking/tobacco legislation focusing primarily on Proposition 99 challenges and reauthorization, local (San Francisco) legislation, national legislation, and legislation in other states (arranged alphabetically by state). 2. Lawsuits, which include information on a variety of legal actions around smoking including smoking liability suits, nonsmokers rights, children's television, and ADA challenges. 3. Newsletters, which contain scattered issues of newsletters from a number of anti-smoking organizations. These are organized as follows: national organizations first, then by state, international organizations, then by region and country within region. The final section includes program materials and materials regarding other groups and miscellaneous issues.

Subject File

This series is made up of clippings and other reference materials that were maintained by ANR staff as their "Master File." ANR staff have assigned three-letter subject codes, and in some cases, additional subheadings to each document.

Arrangement

The first folder contains a master list of all the subject codes and subheadings. Most subheadings are not broken out or arranged, though in a few specific instances some subheadings have been identified in folder names. The largest subject categories represented include: 1. Advertising (10 folders) 2. Non-smoking Groups (18 folders) 3. Tobacco Industry and Cigarette Companies (5 folders). Not all categories mentioned in the master list are represented by materials in this collection.
