Biography
The United Daughters of the Confederacy was founded in 1894. Its membership consists of women descendants of Confederate veterans and supporters of the Confederacy organized into over 1000 local chapters. The UDC's objectives are historical, educational and patriotic. The Sterling Price Chapter (Stockton, Calif.) was chartered April 27, 1911.

Scope and Content
The UDC Sterling Price Chapter Records are organized in eight series, as follows: Series I-Minute Books (1911-1984); Series II-Membership Reports, Records and Applications (1912-1997), including genealogical and biographical information; Series III-Financial Records (1932-1979); Series IV-State Division Correspondence & Misc. Writings(1937-1994); published yearbooks of the California Division (1916-1995); Series V-State and Local Histories & Biographies; Series VI-Publications (1916-1997), including State Division Convention Programs (1916-1995), Yearbooks (1916-1996) and "Daughters of the Confederacy Magazine" (1941-1997); Series VII-Scrapbooks & Clippings on Sterling Price Chapt. (1918-1996); and, Series VIII-Ephemera and Memorabilia (1911-). Additions to the collection are anticipated.
