Content Description
2 scrapbooks documenting Glenn Tindall's work with the Department of Parks and Recreation and the Hollywood Bowl in Los Angeles as music director. Scrapbook #1 consists primarily of photographs documenting Tindall's work, primarily with children, across Los Angeles--images of children and their homemade ukuleles in Venice, a harmonica band in Downey, making cigar box fiddles in Echo Park, to name a few. There are also photographs of many city facilities--parks, playgrounds, community centers and some historic sites. Scrapbook #2 contains clippings from various Los Angeles newspapers discussing Tindall's work, the various programs mounted by the Department, and musical activities throughout the city.
