Abstract: The records, audiotapes and video tapes, photographs, ephemera, and artifacts of the University of Southern California Office of the Provost. As the second ranking official and the chief academic officer, the Office of the Provost provides academic leadership to the University of Southern California (USC). In addition, materials document the administration of the international Tyler Prize for Environmental Achievement, which is considered the premier award for environmental science, environmental health and energy conferring great benefit upon mankind. The Tyler Prize is now administered by the USC Dornsife College of Letters, Arts, and Sciences.

Administrative History
The Office of the Provost provides academic leadership to the University of Southern California (USC). As USC's second ranking official and the chief academic officer, the Provost reports directly to the USC President. The Provost supervises all academic programs and support functions, faculty affairs, student academic affairs, and academic planning. The Provost is also a principal participant in collaborative decision-making on issues such as fundraising and endowment, the management of auxiliary services, and USC's health services.

The Office of the Provost is accountable for the oversight, coordination, budget, and review of USC's academic units and initiatives. This includes the seventeen schools and two hospitals (as of 2012), educational policies, deans and faculty, research and grants, and strategic planning.

Separated Materials
Books that accompanied the nominations for the Tyler Prize for Environmental Achievement were separated to be given to the USC Libraries.

Conditions Governing Use
All requests for permission to publish or quote from manuscripts must be submitted in writing to the University Archivist. Permission for publication is given on behalf of Special Collections as the owner of the physical items and is not intended to include or imply permission of the copyright holder, which must also be obtained.

Conditions Governing Access
COLLECTION STORED OFF-SITE. Advance notice required for access.

Organization
The collection is organized into the following series:

Scope and Content
These records document the activities of the University of Southern California Office of the Provost, the second highest administrative unit for the University, during the period from 1973 to 2007. The files include an academic planning document; accreditation reports, consisting of reports from the Ad Hoc Review Committees, academic departments, and schools; general correspondence and general files maintained by the Office; files pertaining to faculty appointments, promotions, and tenure; applications for the James H. Zumberge Faculty Research and Innovation Fund; files on the USC... presidential inaugurations of James H. Zumberge and Stephen B. Sample; nominations for staff achievement awards; and files on the Tyler Prize for Environmental Achievement Award presented initially by Pepperdine University (1974-1980) and now by USC (1981-present).

The records include audiotapes, correspondence, clippings, ephemera, office files, photographs and negatives, reports, video tapes, and artifacts.

Staff Achievement Awards 1990-2001

Arrangement

Folders are arranged alphabetically by last name of nominees within the year of nominations.
The Tyler Prize for Environmental Achievement was established by John (1887-1973) and Alice (1912-1993) Tyler. The award was originally named the Tyler Ecology Award (1973-1981), then was re-named the Tyler Ecology - Energy Award (1981-1983), and, finally, the Tyler Prize for Environmental Achievement Award. As of 2011, sixty-three individuals and four organizations have won the Tyler Prize.

The Tyler Prize was administered by Pepperdine University from 1974 to 1980. Since 1981, the prize has been administered by the University of Southern California. Formerly headquartered in the USC Office of the Provost, the Tyler Prize now comes under the auspices of the USC Wrigley Institute for Environmental Studies in the USC Dornsife College of Letters, Arts and Sciences.

For more information about the Tyler Environmental Prize, its founders, and Laureates, see the Tyler Prize website at http://www.usc.edu/dept/LAS/tylerprize/index.html.
