Processing Information

Processed by Tamara Savage in Spring 2015 in the Claremont Center for Engagement with Primary Sources (CCEPS), with assistance from Lisa Crane. Overall, the collection is in good condition. Some very old pieces are fragile and brittle. Photographs and scrapbook pages were placed in mylar sleeves. These materials have been sorted by creator, and then by medium (folders of pencil sketches, pen drawing, pastel drawings, etc.). The loose photographs have largely maintained their original grouping and notations.

Biography

Ethel M. Reed was born in New York on November 11, 1883 and moved to Claremont, California in 1885. She lived there until her death on July 11, 1968. She was a homemaker, never married, and was involved in the community and the Claremont Colleges.

Ethel's adopted daughter, Nancy E. Reed, was born January 8, 1923, attended Pomona College and graduated in 1944 with a degree in chemistry. She worked for the War Department during World War II and as a development chemist for Aerojet-General in Azusa, California. She traveled to France as a visiting scholar from 1946 to 1949. She died on December 2, 1994 in Claremont.

Scope and Contents of the Collection

The collection is comprised of papers from Ethel M. Reed and daughter, Nancy E. Reed.

Ethel's papers contain her writings and family documents. The bulk of her writings are diaries which span 1893-1968 and record daily activities as well as an unpublished manuscript that is an account of her childhood in California. The family documents include school certificates and degrees, property deeds, and obituaries. Some of the family documents and photographs included in this collection date back to the Civil War and even earlier.

Nancy's papers contain her artwork and photographic materials including travel photographs from a trip to France in the late 1940s and several scrapbooks compiled by Nancy containing many pictures (although many of them undated) that span multiple decades and depict her life in Claremont. Nancy's artwork includes pencil sketches, pen drawings, pastels, and paintings. She also wrote and illustrated short picture books, some of which are included in the collection.
